The Borough shall, as soon as practicable after a claim has been made against it, give written notice thereof to the Professional along with full and complete particulars of the claim. It is expressly agreed and understood that any approval by the borough of the services provided by the Professional pursuant to this contract will not relieve the Professional of the obligation to comply with the ADA and to defend, indemnify, protect and save harmless the Borough pursuant to this paragraph.

It is further agreed and understood that the Borough assumes no obligation to indemnify or save harmless the Professional, its agents servants, employees and sub Professionals for any claim which may arise out of their performance of this agreement.

Furthermore, the Professional expressly understands and agrees that the provisions of this indemnification clause shall in no way limit the Professional's obligations assumed in this agreement, nor shall they be construed to relieve the Professional from any liability, nor preclude the Borough from taking any other actions available to it under any other provisions of this agreement or otherwise by law.

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained, it is mutually agreed by and between the parties as follows:

1. Term

Except as otherwise provided by the terms of this Agreement, Roseland is retaining the Firm for the period beginning on January 08, 2024 and ending on December 31, 2024 (the “Term”).

2. Services Provided by the Firm

Following the assignment of a matter under Section 2 (A) hereof and performance by the Firm of a conflicts check, as required pursuant to Section 6 hereof, the Firm shall undertake the professional work assigned with respect to the Roseland Entities pursuant to the following procedures and requirements:

A.) Case Assignment

The Firm shall represent the Roseland Entities in specifically assigned matters. The scope of the Firm’s representation and the identity of the Roseland Entities to be represented shall be as established in the Request for Proposal, if applicable, communications from the Borough Administrator, the Borough’s Attorney, Superintendent of Public Works, and/or communications from Roseland's Attorney, (hereinafter referred to as "General Counsel") for each assigned matter.

B.) Coordination with Roseland

Regarding legal matters, the Firm acknowledges and agrees that it will coordinate all aspects of any legal matter with Roseland's General Counsel including but not limited to discussing strategy; negotiation; drafting and preparation of documents, contracts, pleadings, briefs and motions; retention of experts and expert reports; and/or litigation. The Firm shall provide General Counsel with copies of all court notices and Orders as the Firm receives them and shall provide General Counsel with reasonable advance notice of all litigation events including but not limited to court appearances and conferences, arbitrations, mediations, discovery deadlines, deposition, motions and trial dates. No expert shall be retained without the prior notice and approval of General Counsel. In the event Roseland maintains a panel list of experts, court reporters or other litigation support professionals, the Firm shall use experts or professionals from said panel list. Substantive documents drafted by the Firm must be provided to General Counsel prior to their service upon other parties, mediators, arbitrators or the Court and shall be provided reasonably in advance of any applicable deadline in order to allow a reasonable period of time for review and comment by General Counsel. Further, the Firm shall undertake no research, motion or substantive action without prior written notice to and approval by General Counsel. Motions prepared and research conducted without prior written approval and hearings/conferences attended without prior notice to General Counsel may not be reimbursed. Further, in matters where Roseland has assigned more than one attorney, the Firm shall look to General Counsel for overall matter coordination. The terms of all such settlements, whether at trial or otherwise, must first be approved by the General Counsel who will communicate with the Governing Body with or without the Firm's participation in the judgment of General Counsel.

Regarding all matters, the Firm shall coordinate its efforts with Roseland's Borough Attorney, Special Counsel for COAH matters, and the Roseland Borough Administrator,. The Firm shall keep these individuals advised regarding the progress of the assigned matter and shall not incur any expenses without the prior written approval of the Governing Body.

C.) Reporting Requirements Legal Litigated Matters

In the case of legal, litigated matters, the Firm shall prepare a brief one page quarterly report for each matter it has been assigned (the "QCR") along with a Budget (as described below). Each QCR shall briefly summarize the status of the matter, and where applicable in litigation and tax appeal matters, the estimated exposure of the Roseland Entities for each matter it is currently handling. The QCR shall include the Firm's best estimate of the reserves (both settlement and trial values) it recommends be established for each matter, if applicable.

The Budget shall set forth the estimated legal fees and costs that the Firm expects to be incurred that quarter. The General Counsel's receipt of Budgets that the Firm submits shall not be construed as Roseland's approval for the Firm to incur costs or submit invoices to the extent set forth therein, it being understood that said budgets are submitted solely for the purpose of the General Counsel's consideration, not its approval.

A current version of each QCR and Budget shall be transmitted to General Counsel no later than the tenth day of the first month following the end of each calendar quarter (i.e., the March QCR (known as the "First Quarter QCR") is due April 10; the June QCR (known as the "Second Quarter QCR") is due December 10, etc.). No QCR shall exceed two (2) pages in length. The aggregate time billed for the preparation of each QCR and Budget shall not exceed 1.0 hour unless first approved in writing by General Counsel. In the event that new or additional facts or circumstances are revealed during the period between issuance of QCRs that may substantially change the Roseland Entities' position or exposure in a matter, the Firm shall immediately inform General counsel.

The Firm acknowledges and agrees that should the Firm fail to provide the General Counsel with the QCRs or Budgets in compliance with the above requirements, Roseland may withhold, discount or deny any payment due on the invoices the Firm bills to Roseland. The discount remedy shall be taken in an amount or at terms at Roseland's sole discretion and shall be in addition to all other remedies available to Roseland as provided by this Agreement or at law.

D.) Communication with Media

The Firm shall not provide documents or discuss or otherwise communicate the status of any matter, or provide any other information regarding any matter assigned under this Agreement to any newspaper, TV, internet or any other media outlet or reporter without the express, prior approval of General Counsel.

4. Reimbursement

Except as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, Roseland agrees to reimburse the Firm for services provided by the Firm hereunder at the rates set forth in Roseland's Governing Body's Resolution appointing the Firm or the rate set forth in the Firm's Request for Proposal, whichever is lower. In no case, shall Roseland pay or shall the Firm be entitled to receive any compensation greater than the amount of money set as a "Not to Exceed" in the original Resolution appointing the Firm, or in any other Resolution increasing the "Not to Exceed" amount.

Roseland also agrees to reimburse the Firm for reasonable preapproved expenses in accordance with the Firm's Request for Proposal and Resolution of Roseland's Governing Body appointing the Firm.

The Firm shall submit invoices for services rendered and disbursements made for payment for each matter no greater than sixty (60) days (the "deadline") following the date such service is provided or cost is incurred. For example, services provided on March 1 must be presented in an invoice to Roseland no later than May 1. The Firm agrees that Roseland shall, at its sole discretion, be entitled to refuse or reduce payment for invoices received after the deadline. All invoices provided by the Firm shall be submitted individually, in duplicate with a cover letter indicating, in alphabetical order by case name all invoices being submitted for payment. (For example, it shall be insufficient to state "Work on motion"; rather, the entry shall explain what tasks were performed in drafting said motion). The Firm shall not bill for voicemail messages left or received from any person. Roseland reserves the right to deduct Firm charges that it believes exceed what is reasonably required to complete the task in question. Not more than one attorney or paralegal shall bill time to any task unless the General Counsel approves same in advance. Invoices containing billing for third-party vendor charges must have attached detailed copies of each such invoice. Travel will be reimbursed based upon detailed statements describing such travel (i.e., beginning and ending points, miles traveled and rate per mile charged). Mileage charges shall not exceed that rate which is currently approved by the IRS less 0.05 cents per mile (i.e., if the IRS approved rate for business mileage is 0.50/mi, Roseland will reimburse at 0.45/mi.). In the event copy costs are to be billed, the rate shall not exceed 10 cents per page. Roseland will not reimburse for telefax charges incurred by the Firm unless the General Counsel approves in advance the use of and billing for such telefax delivery in advance in writing. Roseland will not pay for scanning and email of documents. Roseland will reimburse overnight and same day delivery charges (i.e., FedEx, Lawyers Service, etc.) at the actual cost Firm incurs.

Notwithstanding the above, in no case shall Roseland be required to pay the Firm an amount of money that in total exceeds the "Not to Exceed" amount set forth by the Governing Body's Resolution accepting the Firm's Request for Proposal or appointing the firm, as modified by any future "Not to Exceed" that the Governing Body resolves.

for any or all matters assigned to the Firm, even for matters unrelated to the conflict, from the period beginning upon when such conflict arose. The prohibitions set forth in this Paragraph 6 shall survive the expiration or termination of this Agreement for a period of no less than three years.

Further, the Firm covenants and agrees that it shall not accept compensation, reimbursement or payment in any form or fashion from any person, other than Roseland for the Firm's performance of the services required under this Agreement. Finally, the Firm agrees that other than the matters currently being handled on behalf of any of the Roseland Entities, the Firm will not undertake to represent or provide legal services to any official, agent, representative or employee of Roseland, without prior written notice to and approval by Roseland.

The Firm shall be an independent contractor and any individual providing any services on behalf of the Firm shall not be considered an employee of Roseland.

9. Termination

Roseland may terminate this Agreement at any time upon Roseland's Governing Body's resolving to terminate the agreement and upon Roseland providing Firm written notice (the "Termination Notice"). In addition to Roseland's right to deny payment of Firm invoices as otherwise set forth in this Agreement, Roseland shall not be liable for any legal fees the Firm incurs following the delivery of the Termination Notice. The Firm shall reasonably and professionally cooperate at its sole cost and expense with the transition of any and all matters the Firm was assigned to any successor firm including but not limited to executing all necessary substitutions of attorneys and providing all original files promptly to successor firm upon successor firm's request.
